

Yesterday, I received an email from someone about a flow diagram I had produced. The flow diagram showed how elite Maori were taking over ownership of water and water infrastructure in order to set themselves up for cash flow to take over the rest of the country.

Someone pulled me up and said the following.

Dear Julian,
re your diagram. A retired lawyer living at Tauranga has made comment on your diagram. Here is the diagram HERE

He admires your diagram but suggests that you are jumping the gun a bit with some of the statements. Of course, your general narrative is correct as that is what they are up to but it is perhaps too early to make such definitive assertions.

He suggests that you head it something like “LIKELY OUTCOME and SCENARIOS”.

In the first “cloud” you say “Maori go to government to get funding”. Which Maori? The Maori Council, the Maori caucus of Labour? It is unfair to tar all “Maori” as going to govt for money.

Cloud 15.

You say that councils must sign ownership over to Maori. However, it is only indirect ownership and not direct. The ownership lies with the boards

Cloud 18

Same point. Councils are not signing ownership over “to Maori” but to a board which will control it and on which Maori interests (the tribal elite) will have 50% say and probably the casting vote. So, you are basically correct but perhaps it should be phrased a bit more carefully.

Otherwise very good but I suggest that you consider these points.

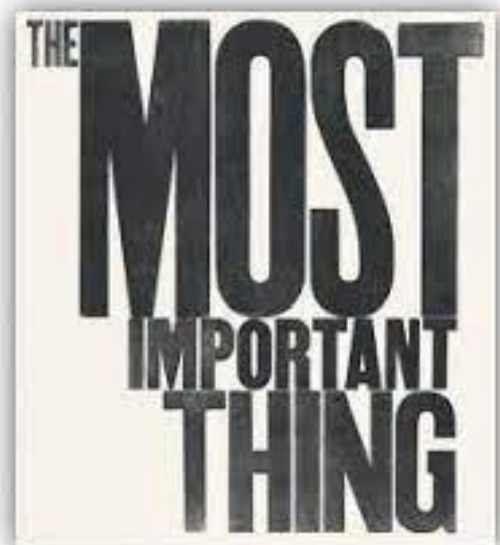

I considered this letter carefully. Then it dawned on me that this letter illustrates how people can be caught up in the detail, and miss the big picture. It’s crucial to get the big picture. The following is how I replied.

“Hi

I have read what you have written, and what was suggested, but I think the author is missing the main thing.

He is over thinking it.

I agree that it’s important to know the detail. Very important.

It's impossible to comment on something intelligently if we don't know the detail.

But it's infinitely more important to understand and grasp the big picture.

The fact is "Maori", whoever you want to mean by that, and there might be dozens of different groups who would fall into that category of people, are wanting to take over New Zealand. You might even include Jacinda Ardern in that group, since she is funding and encouraging the takeover. The fact is, Maori are causing a split in the nation between 'us' and 'them'.

The problem we have is that a huge chunk of the population have not woken up to the fact that a coup is happening in New Zealand.

A coup by Maori. They want to rule and run NZ.

The flow diagram is a prediction, a look into the future, and glimpse into the mind of elite Maori and what they are up to and what they are wanting to achieve. The phrase 'cunning as a Maori dog' did not originate without reason.

The diagram was intended to break down a complex subject and shock the sleeping giant, the large number of kiwis who are asleep at the wheel, into action. Remember 30 something percent of the country are still supporting Labour, which is in effect supporting the coup. This is because they don't realise what is going on.

It's definitely not too early to make such assertions.

By predicting the future, we can motivate and inspire people NOW to take action before its too late - before our predictions become reality.

Who would have thought that when Hitler started to become prominent in Germany in the 1920s that Germany would end up where it did in the 1940s.

If people in Germany in the 1920s could have predicted what was coming, and even people outside of Germany, they might have been able to stop WW2, and certainly the holocaust. So much global pain and suffering could have been averted.

It's the same in New Zealand. I am saying that we as a nation are tracking nicely towards tribal rule and elite Maori dictatorship.

If we don't want all the pain and heartache associated with such rule, now is the time to act, not when it's fully in place and operative. By then it will be too late.

Boards might control water now, this is true. But if we think that 'Maori' will not change the rules and legislation later on, or as they progress, to give themselves complete ownership, then we are naive in the extreme. We are fools.

Thank you for your comment and interest.”

Update on Mayor Craig Jepson in Kaipara

Attend the march in Dargaville on Wednesday (tomorrow, 14th March 2022) to support Craig and his team. Contact Geoff to join the counter march, starting 8am. Email: stopcogovernance.geoff@gmail.com

I phoned Craig to congratulate him. I want you to do the same 027 304 01 44 or mayor@kaipara.govt.nz

Let's flood his inbox with love, support, and encouragement. He was absolutely right to do what he did.

What you can do to help stop co-governance

Have these business cards printed and start handing them out, put them on car windscreens, in letter boxes, post the QR code on social media. If you really don't want co-governance, and you want to stop the coup, then become a big picture person, start using the word 'coup'. Then get some business cards printed, and get going.

Volunteer to help host a meeting in your town or suburb!

There is a small team of us who are planning a tour of New Zealand starting mid Jan 2023.

The purpose of the tour is to raise awareness of the danger of co-governance, and to gather political support to stop it.

We would like you to help us....

In the cities, we need a couple of people in each suburb.

In towns also a couple of people

If you and/or a friend are willing to help out pls email us here stopcogovernance@gmail.com

Some of the tasks to do are:

Help set up chairs and signs at the venue in your area

Deliver flyers.

We will obviously advertise the meeting places and times on our web site.

These events do cost money unfortunately so if you can make a donation that would also be fantastic...head to our website to donate..... Thanks!

If you really want to stop co-governance, and the takeover of New Zealand by radical Maori distortion, then now is the time to take action.

It's time to move out of your office and away from your computer, and hit the streets! Complaining on line can only take us so far. We need to go to the next level.

Now is the time! Email or phone me right now.
