

What you can do? 5 Things....

1

Post this video on Social media, and email it to everyone on your address book.

<https://youtu.be/Ny7ULqmwn-I>

The problem we have to solve is that the vast majority of Kiwis are not aware of what co-governance is, and why it's so wrong / dangerous. The video will help bring awareness, which in turn will cause voters to put pressure on political parties to outlaw co-governance.

2

Have these business cards printed and start handing them out, put them on car windscreens, in letter boxes, post the QR code on social media. If you really don't want co-governance, and you want to stop the coup, then become proactive with these cards. Get some business cards printed, and get going. If a lot of people become active with these cards, collectively we can make a very big bang. Awareness is the key to change.

If you only want a few 100 of the cards, or a smaller number, just write to me julian@stopcogov.nz and I will courier some to you. They are 10 cents each, plus courier.

3

Volunteer to help host a meeting in your town or suburb!

There is a small team of us who are planning a tour of New Zealand starting early 2023.

The purpose of the tour is to raise awareness of the danger of co-governance, and to gather political support to stop it.

We would like you to help us....

In the cities, we need a couple of people in each suburb.

In towns also a couple of people

If you and/or a friend are willing to help out pls email us here stopcogovernance@gmail.com

Some of the tasks to do are:

Help set up chairs and signs at the venue in your area

Deliver flyers.

We will obviously advertise the meeting places and times on our web site.

These events do cost money unfortunately so if you can make a donation that would also be fantastic...head to our website to donate..... Thanks!

If you really want to stop co-governance, and the takeover of New Zealand by radical Maori distortion, then now is the time to take action.

It's time to move out of your office and away from your computer, and hit the streets! Complaining on line can only take us so far. We need to go to the next level.

Now is the time! Email or phone me right now. 0274764430.

Stopcogovernance@gmail.com

We also have to raise $25k initially to pay for truck signage, flyers, sound equipment, accommodation, fuel, meals etc. If you can help with this please do.

4

Read Sir Apirana Ngata's commentary on the Treaty of Waitangi. He was / is New Zealand's greatest Maori, and greatest Maori politician. His commentary on the Treaty puts to bed every last one of the nonsense cries of the Maori activists today. It's only a few pages long. Here it is HERE

5

Memorise the Treaty. Yesterday, I was out and about, and met a Maori lady. We got into a discussion about co-governance. As you'd expect, she was for it, and I was against. I asked if she'd read the Treaty. To her credit, she was honest, and admitted she hadn't.

I wrote out the first Article of the Treaty on a piece of paper for her and asked her to tell me what she thought it said. She had little idea about the words 'cede' and 'sovereignty'. So I explained them. I would not say she was silenced, but she was sobered up. She will doubtless go and show this to all her mates. It was a reality check for her.

I asked her if she heard of Sir Apirana Ngata. She hadn't.

What this all told me was that Maori are only hearing what they see on the TV news, and in the papers, which has little (or nothing) to do with truth, and everything to do with pro-elite Maori propaganda and spin.

Below is the Treaty of Waitangi. This is the Littlewood draft, which is the final draft from which the Maori version was made. The Maori version is called Te Tiriti. The Maori version is THE Treaty. So if you want to know what the Maori version says, read the Littlewood draft. There are only three articles in the Treaty, and here they are.

Article one:

“The chiefs of the confederation of united tribes, and the other chiefs who have not joined the confederation, cede to the Queen of England forever the entire sovereignty of their country.”

Article two:

“The Queen of England confirms and guarantees to the chiefs and the tribes and to all the people of New Zealand, the possession of their lands, dwellings and all their property. But the chiefs of the Confederation of the United Tribes and the other chiefs grant to the Queen, the exclusive rights of purchasing such lands as the proprietors thereof may be disposed to sell at such prices as may be agreed upon between them and the person appointed by the Queen to purchase from them.”

Article three:

“In return for the cession of their sovereignty to the Queen, the people of New Zealand shall be protected by the Queen of England and the rights and privileges of British subjects will be granted to them.”