"Hi John, thank you for your wee note. Yes, we've thought a lot about it, and so have a lot of other people. John, we've sold over 40,000 of 'this crap' in five weeks...and still counting. So there are a lot of Kiwis who don't think it's crap. Open your mind to the truth. Pull your head out of the sand man. Join in. Have a lovely day at the beach."

"Hi

Your closest friend has been brainwashed. Don't forget, New Zealanders have been heavily groomed for the last 10 years and some have fallen for it, for co-governance, particularly the under 30's.

Propaganda is powerful. Remember, even up to the end of war in 1944, when it was becoming obvious Germany was going to lose the war, 100's of thousands of Germans were still hailing Hitler as their Saviour. The truth that he wasn't was in evidence everywhere, but they refused to believe the evidence.

The booklets we have produced about co-governance makes the truth of the matter patently clear. It too is strong evidence. How can anyone argue against the truth in these booklets? They are simply facts.

So far, after five weeks, not one person has challenged these facts.

What can we conclude? There are presently three groups in New Zealand.

*The truth of the elite Maori takeover is likewise everywhere to be seen, yet some people refuse to believe it's happening. These are the head in the sand group.

*Others are watching and approving, not knowing the facts. They have swilled down the propaganda to the dregs. These are the brainwashed group.

*Others are watching, they know the facts, and are horrified by what they see. These are the awakened.

Our task is to grow the size of the awakened group by converting the brainwashed and the head in the sand groups by irrefutable reasoning, sound argument, and an appeal to sensibility.

In the end, truth always wins.

Co-governance is built on untruths, deception, deceit, and lies.

Therefore, like a house built on sand, when the storm comes, it will not stand.

We, all Kiwis who are standing up against co-governance, are that storm.
